Miscellaneous Selections.

Confession and Death of an Army Chaplain. M. M. Pomeroy, the able editor of the La Cross (Wis.) Democrat, gives the following death-bed scene, which he was called to visit in his recent visit to Chicago:

The Rev. Henry Clannard, an ex-army chaplain who left off expounding the Bible and recruiting for the Saviour, and by indorsing the nigger and abolitionists became an army chaplain in one of the Wisconsin regiments, passed from life to a home beyond a blessed immortality, the other day, and thus shuffled off this mortal coil. A physician had called on him two war, and whose time of subscription had not ex- or three times a day for a month, docpired, will be furnished the paper free on the toring him for an ague brought on while restoration of communication, until the time be stealing cotton in Arkansas while with filled. If they desire the paper longer after that | Gen. Curtis. On learning that the exminister and ex-chaplain would hardly live the night out, we called with the physician.

In a little wooden-looking room not over twelve feet square, in an obscure boarding house in Chicago we found the invalid. The room was bare of furniture except a poor bed, a little dirty washstand, two wood-bottom chairs, an old trunk, a pine table, on which was spread a newspaper on which lay an old Bible, a pair of old snuffers, some pill boxes and such stuff. The dying man was propped up in bed, while a faithful negro woman sat on the foot of the bed. As we entered, he rallied a little, asked the doctor who he had brought with him. On being told that it was "Brick" Pomeroy, he sank back, closed his eyes—rallied a little and said:— "Perhaps it is as well. He might as well know it as any one."

And he proceeded to make his dving statement, which was in these words, as we took them in our memorandum book as the physician requested: My name is Henry Clannard; I am forty-one years old. I am a Methodist minister- at least I was one. I was once happy and contented, and loved Christ, my Master, with all the zeal a Christian ever had. At last I grew cold in religion, selfish and envious of the good fortunes of others. I wanted to make money and to have some fun. 1 I would be a Republican politician. I began by preaching politics from the pulpit, and praying for the negro. It paid me in money, but I lost influence at the Throne of Grace. But I did not care for that, if I could only have influence with the Republican party. I forgot Christ and became interested in the negro. I had influence with a few members of my church, and talked politics M. to them. I was paid by office-seekers to influence Christians. Sometimes I have made as high as fifteen dollars at Barrow. an election for my influence with Chris-

At last I found politics paid better than religion, and I worked for the chaplainey of a regiment and got it. Then I let religion go and went to war .-There I wrote letters home denouncing Democrats as copperheads. And I stole cotton, and silver ware, and pictures, and books, and dresses for my wife and sisters, and horses and mules for my brothers, and a piano for the Governor who gave me my commission, and a gold watch for my captain, and a lot of household furniture to send my colonel. And I robbed the soldiers of jelly and such stuff sent down to them to use while in hospital, and I had my share of goods stolen from the Sanitary fairs and made lots of money. Please give me a little piece of that pounded ice !"

The physician gave it to him, when he continued:

"But I was not happy. I drank whiskey with the boys when away from home, and indulged in some excesses not worth mentioning, and laid up quite a pile of money. And I was taken sick while out stealing cotton from a plantation where a widow lady lived. I had coaxed her niggers to run away, and they are all dead now. When the war was ended I came home to Wisconsin. but could not stay there. So I came to Chicago. And I grew siek. And I have got to die. I have called on Christ -I have prayed to God, but somehow JAS. T. BRADY, Capt. D. C. Landis, I cannot get relief for my soul. The door of mercy seems shut against me.

I was unfaithful to my religion and am forgotten. I was faithful to the negro; but, alas! the negro can't help me where I want help; he can't ease my guilty soul. I am going to hell, and I know it. I expect to meet many persons there who forgot religion for politics. I do not expect to see you again in this world or the next, but I want this confession printed. Please-

THE KIDNEYS. THE KIDNEYS ARE TWO IN NUMBER, situated at the upper part of the loin, surrounded by fat and consisting of three parts, viz: The Anterior, the Interior, and the Exterior. The anterior absorbs. Interior consists of the sues or veins, which serve as a deposit for the urine and convey it to the exterior. The exterior is a conductor also, terminating in a single tube and called the Ureter. The ureters are connected with the bladder.

The ureters are connected with the bladder.

The bladder is composed of various coverings or tissues, divided into parts, viz: the Upper, the Lower, the Nervous, and the Mucous. The upper expels, the lower retains. Many have a desire to urinate without the ability to retain. This frequently occurs in children.

To cure these affections we must bring into action the muscles, which are engaged in their various functions. If they are neglected, Gravel or Dropsy may ensue.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted with my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu. I did this because I had used all kinds of ad-vertised remedies, and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious: in fact, I despuired of ever getting well, and determined to use no reme-dies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination, and, with his advice, after an examination of the and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced its use about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room. From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out.

I felt much like writing you a full statement of my case at that time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer and see if it would effect a perfect to you and more satisfactory to me.
